Northeast's Victory Over Standings of Teams in West Philly and Defeat of Central by Southern Splits League Tie

SHANE PROVES A STAR

By PAUL PREP

THRST place in the Interscholastic League today belongs singularly, independently and unanimously to South Philadelphia High School. This came to pass following yesterday's ratures in which the pair of Phila-West and South—were defeated and victorious.

South Philly's win over Central High was no surprise, but West Philly's de-feat by Northeast High was not ex-pected, although it was predicted in Thursday's EVENING PUBLIC LEGGER Thursday's EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER that the Archives probably would uper the done. The Southwark five won from the Crimson and Gold, 33 to 18, while the Speedboys ran second in a one-sided 44 to 16. score with the Archives.

By pulling the unexpected yesterday Northeast may have decided the 1920 championship in the favor of South Philadelphia High, yet—and still—one never can tell. However, on paper, the downtown five is in a class by itself, and it should continue to be so even after Goldblatt and Dessen are lost to after Goldblatt and Dessen are lost to the team through graduation, Febru-

Freeman May Play Again

Barris, Silver or Kolbes is being groomed to take the place of Dessen at guard, and in Goldblatt's stead Coach Doctor Kerr has a great surprise. This surprise, however, depends a lot on the scholastic reports to be issued at the end of the month. If he is eligible to play. South Philly will have the best floorman of the 1919 season back in the line-up in the person of "Bunny" Free-

Last year Freeman materially aided South Philly in finishing the season in front, but when it was brought out that Bunny' wasn't just so in his schol-astics, the victories of the Southwart quintet were protested later and thrown out. So, it resulted in West Philly and Central High playing a post season game for the title taken away from South Philly, with the Speedboys being

Leopold is Star

Captain Leopold led in the South Philly attack yesterday against Central with four field goals. But Leopold was with four held goals. But Leopold was unable to get going strongly until after Captain Goldstein, of Central, had been taken out of the game because of the four-foul personal ruling. While "Goldie" was in the fray, Leopold got but one field goal, but later with Ball opposing him Leopold was able to show greatly to advantage.

Northeast's most aggressive player in helping to tie the tinware on Old Man Dope and West Philly was Shane. His pegging was good for eight two-pointers, while O'Brien also proved his eye was on the basket by shooting foul goals at a 1.000 clin, dropping in ten out of Shooting by Crimson and Gold men was way off. In the last few minutes of play Thornon caged three out of four free shots.

Joe Biben, Penn fresh tackie and former alms mater yesterday, when it was discovered that he cheer leader was among those present. Biben volunteered, and he did exceptionally well.

Goldblatt, of South Philly, entered into a se for foul shooting with Lenr. of Frank ord, when Label made thirteen free tries. Such has a total of thirty-eight for the our games played to date. However, Goldslatt's percentage is better, because he has made fewer attempts from the 15-foot mark.

Schwartz, of Central, it was said, went to the South Philip game in a sick con-lition, Green, of Southern, also was ill, so was all even.

biays with Southern's first team, was the big noise of the downtowners second-team victory over the Central Yanigana. Eddie scored five goals from field and seven out of nine fouls.

Referee Geiges was late in getting out to the Central Southern game, because of a misunderstanding, which delayed the first team's contest. In order to get the reserve contest under way. Coach Doctor Kerr. of Southern, insisted that Coach Doctor O'Brien referee, and the Central tutor finally consented. Doctor O'Brien officiated splendfilly, and he was given a rousing ovation by the South Philly students after the match. Captain Kneass, of West Phills

Captain Burroughs, of Camden High, donned gumshoes, cheaters, false whiskers and spied on South Phills while the latter was whipping Central yesterday. Burrough returned across the river, knowing that his five will have a tough job on their hands next Tuesday at the Southern gym.

Rounds at Cambria

Charley O'Neil came through with a close decision over Joe Welsh in the main bout at the Cambria A. A. last night. Welsh floored his opponent in the third round. O'Neil had taken a count of three, when the bell rang.

In the latter rounds, however, O'Neil surprised the crowd by staging a great come-back, using a left jab with great effect. It was this method of attack that won for O'Neil, as he repeatedly beat Welsh to the punch with a straight by the calmness with which he drew forth his mashie niblic, took the stance as shown, and put it up for a put every time. But for his ability to make this shot. Hoffner figures he might have been beaten.

"In addressing the ball," said Hoffner, the other day, "there is no fixed stance, as the player must become accustomed to awkward foothoids. A firm footing is necessary, particularly where there is sand or the ground is soft. The left must be especially firm.
